ON THE ROAD To The Title

DEMONS IN 4 GOAL BLITZ

Blacktown City Demons 4 Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2

Mark Fowler was at the Gabbie Stadium

Blacktown finally found their scoring boots at home to Bonnyrigg in Round 8 action, scoring four goals in 12 minutes to seal, on paper, a comfortable victory.

In truth though, Bonnyrigg looked much more likely to score than Blacktown in the first period, controlling the game for the first 35 minutes or so.

Robert Gomez and Colin Luff caused the Blacktown defence all sorts of trouble, and it was only as the first half came to a close that Blacktown had efforts on goal. The first of those efforts came with just a couple of minutes left in the half, Aaron Holst clipping the cross bar with a header following neat work by Damien Brown, then Jon Angelucci firing a knock-down over the bar after more superb work by Brown.

Before that though, it was the Gomez show. Although the teams went in at half time locked at 0-0, he had done his best to change that scoreline.

After 18 minutes Mark Racker stormed 60 metres down the wing, and after crossing Gomez fired just wide. Just two minutes later Holst trod on the ball, but the chance was lost as Gomez and Colin Luff were unable to capitalise.

On 22 minutes another Gomez effort was blocked, then ten minutes later Jon Angelucci smacked a shot goalwards that was well saved by Bonnyrigg's Sasha Bozic. A minute later though Gomez was back in the action, as a long throw from Bozic saw Bonnyrigg's no 13 dart clear. Blacktown's Steve Riches tugged the speedsters shirt though, stopping Gomez in his tracks and earning the defender a yellow card. A minute after Gomez crossed to Javier Mancino, who glanced a header wide. It was a good chance for Bonnyrigg's Sasha Bozic under pressure at the Gabbie.

Bonnyrigg leading up to the half time break.

Blacktown came out in the second half and Bozic again denied Angelucci, saving a powerful header well. Just four minutes later came the first goal, Paul Dee of Bonyrigg receiving a great pass and firing home in style.

Angelucci nearly replied immediately for Blacktown, his cross being deflected somehow wide. However, a quick free kick on 64 minutes caught Bonnyrigg napping. Missed by the defence, Bennett was left with just Bozic to beat, which he did first time.

That goal inspired Blacktown, and just two minutes later another quick set-piece, this time a corner, found substitute Damien Smith, who headed home to make it 2-1. It suddenly seemed a different game, and the third goal in six minutes came when Blacktown's Chris Bradley finished from close range to make it 3-1. Incredibly, Bradley popped up just six minutes later to get his head to a cross. His header looked to be going wide, however it hit a defender guarding the far post and crept over the line.

Probably the best move of the match saw Bonnyrigg, through Colin Luff, get a late consolation goal. Good passing saw Luff able to convert well to give him his fourth goal of the season, and put an end to a second hald which had given us six goals.

Blacktown Coach Brian Brown was naturally pleased with the result, especially his team putting some goals away. An early injury to Stuart Cleary saw Damien Smith come on and get the sponsor's Man of the Match award, although my vote went to the other Damien, Brown, who performed admirably. Brown has the difficult, or envious, task of having a number of attackers and only so many places - a task which makes his job difficult but which many other coaches would like to have!

Bonnyrigg's John Turner must be disappointed with the result, especially after performing so well in the second period. But for that mad 12 minute spell, his team may have come away with something from this game.

Blacktown: Greco, Lowe, Foxe, Bradley, Angelucci, Cleary (Smith) Bennett, Brown, Holst, Sermanni, Riches (Jackett)

Bonnyrigg: Bozic, Xuereb, Racker, Dragas, Richardson, Mancino (Nikolic) Luff, Gomez, Green (Savic), Warburton (Crnokrak), Dee

Goals: Blacktown: Bennett 64' Smith 66' Bradley 70' og 76' Bonnyrigg: Dee 49 ' Luff 88'

Best for Blacktown: Damien Brown

Best for Bonnyrigg: Robert Gomez

SUPER SUB McDONALD

Macarthur Rams 1
Parramatta Eagles 0

Macarthur Rams bounced back from last week's defeat at Fairfield Bulls to defeat Parramatta Eagles 1-0, in front of a crowd of over 2000.

It was always going to be tough for the Eagles, as despite a perfect home record their away record is poor.

The goal that settled the game came in the 82nd minute from substitute Iain McDonald. Richard Lloyd pushed forward down the right hand side and delivered a great cross to Eric Williams. Williams effort was saved by Parramatta's Jason Holmes, but only as far as McDonald, who finished from close range.

The match was an exciting contest, with the first half even and both teams creating a number of chances. Speedy Trevor Whiddett caused problems for the Eagles defence, while 6 goal striker Grant Bard of the Eagles enjoyed a good tussle with Ben Willard.

The turning point of the second half, with the game still at 0-0, came when Parramatta substitute Malcolm Meilak, booked just a minute after coming on, received his second yellow card just four minutes later. It was to prove costly when just three minutes later McDonald scored the winner.

Macarthur coach Casey De Bruin felt his team had been served well by Martin Bourke, who on current form must rate as one of the form players in Super League.

Macarthur Rams: Crawley, Willard, Lloyd, Valle, Bourke, Reid, Rastall, Knight, Macerola (Macerola), Williams, Whiddett (McDonald)

Parramatta: Holmes, O'Grady, Dowling, Revely, Boskovski, Araujo, Bard, Mittiga, Islas, Elrich, Panzarino (M Meilak)

Goals: Macarthur Rams: McDonald 82'

Yellow cards: Macarthur Rams: Bourke, Knight Parramatta Eagles: O'Grady, Islas

Red Card: Parramatta Eagles: M Meilak 79

SUTHERLAND SECURE POINT

Sutherland Sharks 1
Fairfield Bulls 1

Greg Stock was at Seymour Shaw Park

Competition high-flyers Fairfield Bulls journeyed to Seymour Shaw on Saturday evening expecting to take the full compliment of points from their less fancied opponents. Instead, a Craig Hobbs strike in the 49th minute and a resolute Sharks defence was enough to send the Bulls back to Fairfield with just a solitary point. The signing of their old sponsor 'Aussieduct' midweek had the Sharks camp in a buoyant mood and it showed on the park.

A little complacency on the part of the Bulls was to prove their underdoing as the Sharks seemed determined to make a match of it early. They chased, tackled and ran hard but it wasn't until the 15th minute that a Bulls freekick was the first real shot on goal. Mark Hoenselaars, who caused the Sharks defence some anxious moments throughout the night, was felled by a Sharks defender just outside the penalty box. Up stepped Jason Falzon but his right footed effort sailed perilously close to the right hand upright with Olla well and truely beaten. Nine minutes later the blond haired Achilleas Markopoulos popped up in midfield to unleash a stinging drive from distance, but Dragon Pupovac was equal to the task in the Fairfield goal.

The Bulls midfield started to create some chances and in the 33rd minute Jason Falzon, the Bulls midfield general, got a terrific ball through to Mathew Borg in traffic. The Sharks defence arrived too late to close him down as the ball sailed past Dennis Olla into the net. This was to be the only blemish on the Sharks defence all night as they regrouped and fought hard to close down Borg and Hoenselaars. Not to be outdone the Sharks replied strongly when minutes later Levi Stephen also decided to try his luck from distance with the energetic Pupovac turning his shot over the bar.

At half-time it was 1-0 to the visitors but Sharks coach John Lavin decided to substitute Cord Tolson for teenage sensation Kris Karanosis. Four minutes into the second half he was proved correct. Levi Stephen made a long withering run down the left and sent a perfect cross to the far post.

Karanosis was there to turn the ball cooly to the waiting Hobbs who unleashed his drive past the unlucky Pupovac. A product of the local Sutherland association Karanosis is only 16 years of age but seems to have all the skills needed to be a success in Super League. Coach John Lavin wants to bring his prospect on slowly but his enthusiasm and speed will make him a tough opponent for defenders in the coming weeks.

Fairfield were not done with yet and in the 54th minute Jason Falzon released wing back Martin Driene on a run down the right. His shot was not far away either as it sailed perilously close to the top left corner. Driene had a great match on the right side his non stop running and superb crossed constantly threatened the Sharks defence. Bulls coach Joe Watson was forced to replace his playmaker Jason Falzon in the 58th minute and with him went most of the Bulls hopes for three points. As the clock wound down the best chance of a tough second half fell to Borg when his shot from inside the area wasn't enough to trouble Olla. The Sharks defence led by Malcolm Bideau at sweeper were sensational. Daley and Harris stood up in the second half and made life difficult for both Borg and Hoenselaars. Jeff Suzor did some nice things in the Bulls midfield as did Giometti while goalkeeper Dragon Pupovac was his usual solid self.

Fairfield coach Joe Watson wasn't looking for excuses in the Bulls rooms but did point out they are still missing five of their first eleven players with injury. Names like Vrankovic, Larocca and Treharn are sorely missed but he praised his troops for the way they fought out a tough second half.

Sutherland coach John Lavin praised his side for the determined way they went went about their business. In the past they have been guilty of being too sloppy and lacking intensity for the full ninety minutes but they still have a long way to go to improve their mental attitude. Keegan Pillay and Malcolme Bideau were Lavin's pick as his best performers.

Sutherland Sharks: Olla, Daley, Bideau, Markopoulos (Podesta 79'), Hobbs, Stephen, Moszny, Corbo, Pillay, Giraldo, Tolson (Karanosis 46').

Fairfield Bulls: Pupovac, Driene, Mandic, Grubba (Cuneen 77'), Zabetakis, Falzon (Iocca 58'), Hoenselaars (Talcevski 82'), Borg, Bourke, Suzor, Giometti.

ANOTHER FOUR FOR BANKSTOWN

Central Coast 0 Bankstown City Lions 4

Bankstown City Lions finished off a turbulent week the way they started it - by banging in four goals.

Last week it was Sutherland who were hit for four, with George Issa getting 2, and this week it was the Coasties, with the same player grabbing another brace.

During the week though the Lions were rocked when new coach Sakib Lovic handing in his resignation, much to the shock of the Bankstown faithful.

(See page 10 for more details)

After three straight losses and hearing the team they were playing would be without a coach, the Coasties must have fancied their chances against a team who has proved inconsistent in 1999. It was not to be though.

Bankstown's first goal came after just eight minutes. Stewart Van Bentum swung over a great cross to the far post, where George Issa finished with an unmarked header. Mendo Lozevski had the next chance after 32 minutes, but missed a glorious opportunity. The miss could have proved costly as Jai Mcdermott had a similar chance just four minutes later but mis-kicked, and after Lozevski was denied by Steve Angelov in the Coasties goal the midfielder made it third time lucky. With just a minute to go before half time a free kick from Bankstown wasn't properly cleared, and Lozevski made it 2-0.

The Coasties came out firing in the second half, forcing 7 corners to none in the first 20 minutes, but were unable to score. As so often happens, the other team then went up the other end and scored. This time it was Bankstown's Stewart Van Bentum, who smacked a 20 metre free kick home. George Issa then made it 4-0 finishing off a flowing move. The Coasties day was summed up in the last minute, when a free kick hit the post and rebounded into the safe hands of Leo Josevski.

FIRST WIN FOR EASTS

Eastern Suburbs 3
Canterbury Marrickville 1

The Eastern Suburbs Wanderers took on Canterbury Marrickville at Wentworth Park last Sunday in Round 8 action, with the away team looking to continue the Wanderers miserable run. Without a win all season however, Eastern Suburbs threw the form book out of the window with a 3-1 victory.

Impressive youngster Manny Mitakidis started the game in attack for Eastern Suburbs, and he showed why he should be in the team when he was denied twice by Canterbury Marrickville's impressive 'keeper Steve Tolios.

Eastern Suburbs took the lead through a quickly taken free kick from Vadim Mikoutski, whose shot surprised everyone as it squeezed inside the post.

The Wanderers have conceded a number of goals just before and after the half time break, but this time it was their turn to repeat the trick on someone else. Naoki Imaya scored a double either side of the break, firstly after good work by Stevie Lawrence to hold the ball up inside the penalty area, then just after the break to finish an untidy move to incredibly make it 3-0. Eastern Suburbs fans were not complaining about the quality of the goal.

Imaya was then denied a hat-rick by Tolios' feet, before Stevie Lawrence hit the crossbar after lobbing the goalkeeper. In a beaten side Tolios once again stood out.

Canterbury Marrickville pulled a goal back through Zoran Ilic, after good lead up work by Jim Nikas. Nikas was good enough to cut the ball back for Ilic, who slotted the ball home from close range.

It was a great turn around for Eastern Suburbs, who will go into the Easter weekend with renewed confidence, while although Canterbury Marrickville turned in a flat performance they still have a side capable of beating any team in Super League.

TIGERS PICK UP THREE POINTS

Leichhardt Tigers 1
Ryde City 0

In the day's other game, Leichhardt Tigers defeated Ryde City 1-0, courtesy of a goal after 25 minutes from Chris Lansdown.

It was Lansdown's fifth goal of the season, and the quicksilver attacker looks to be adding the finishing touches to his undoubted speed.

The win leaves Leichhardt in sixth spot on the table, after winning four and drawing one of their opening eight games. This good start could come unstuck over Easter though, as the Tigers play Bonnyrigg and Bankstown, in what amounts to two difficult games. They will be encouraged though in keeping Ryde scoreless, as although the Gunners are third to bottom they had scored in every game before this clash.

The Gunners find themselves still in the bottom three but with Eastern Suburbs winning and Sutherland drawing at home to high-flying Fairfield Bulls, their safety gap has now gone.

Its also a difficult Easter for Ryde, playing a Canterbury Marrickville side who will be fired up after their loss to Eastern Suburbs, and like Leichhardt, Ryde also have to play Bonnyrigg.

ROUND Nine PREVIEW

Bonnyrigg White Eagles v Leichhardt Tigers

After last week's disappointing loss to Blacktown, Bonnyrigg face a difficult task against Leichhardt. Sitting in fifth place after 8 games, a win here will see them keep in contention with the top 4.

Lecihhardt also have 13 points from 8 games, and picked up a welcome three points against Ryde City courtesy of Chris Lansdown. Lansdown has scored 5 of his team's 13 goals, and will need to be watched closely.

Super Soccer tip - A draw.

Note; *BWE Played last three matches away and at home this season have won only once from three starts.

Bankstown City Lions v Blacktown City Demons

Who will take over from Coach Sakib Lovic? Not the sort of questions you want to have to answer when you are playing a Blacktown outfit who have just scored four goals at home. The competition's leading scorers come up against the leading defence - something will have to give.

Blacktown face a battle here, but will be bouyed by their goal-scoring performance last week. Coach Brian Brown saw striker Staurt Cleary limp off early against Bonnyrigg, and will hope he is fit despite having a number of other potent strikers at the club.

Super Soccer tip - Blacktown to snatch a win.

23/7/97 - Banks C 0 - Black C 3 (DeJesus x2, Cleary)
Note; *Bankstown City have not been beaten in their past three home games and have scored 4, 4 and 3 goals each time. Their only home loss was the 5-1 rout in round 2 by Canterbury-Marrickville
*Blacktown City have the toughest defence in the league conceeding only 8 goals

Fairfield Bulls v Central Coast

Fairfield Bulls were surprisingly held at Sutherland last week, and will entertain Central Coast with the Super League's top goalscorer, Matthew Borg, ready to add to his tally of 7 goals.

Central Coast will not relish this tie. After four defeats the last place you want to be visiting is a club who are still buzzing after their great start to the season. The Coasties were over-run by Bankstown last up and will need to battle to get anything out of this one.

Super Soccer tip - Fairfield

Fairfield Bulls;

Note; *FB have competitions leading goalscorer in Matthew Borg
*CC lost four on the trot

Eastern Suburbs v Macarthur Rams

Eastern Suburbs picked up their first win of the season but remain bottom of the table. Their three goals against Canterbury Marrickville gives them 9 from 8 games, but they will do well to ad to that tally against Macarthur.

The Rams left it late against Parramatta but bounced back well after losing to Fairfield. This well-drilled outfit will take some stopping as the season moves on.

Super Soccer tip - Macarthur Rams

Eastern Suburbs;

Note: *ES won their first game of the season last week.
*MR are one of three teams to have scored in every match so far this year.

Canterbury-Marrickville v Ryde City

Canterbury-Marrickville would have been in fifth place but for there surprise loss to Eastern Suburbs. One feels they will not slip up on home turf against Ryde.

Ryde remain third to bottom after their loss to Leichhardt, but with Eastern Suburbs winning and Suthreland drawing, the gap has closed. Will look to their strong defence to keep out Jim Nikas and co.

Super Soccer tip - Canterbury-Marrickville

Note: *CM top scorer Nikas hasn't scored since rd3
*RC playing both Easter matches away from home.

Parramatta Eagles v Sutherland Sharks

Parramatta have a 100% home record after three games, and will look to put last week's late defeat to Macarthur behind them. Striker Grant Bard has scored six already this season and will relish the chance of playing against his former team-mates.

Sutherland picked up a creditable draw at home to Fairfield, but will look to improve on their '99 away record. In Levi Stephen and Craig Hobbs they have two players who can turn a match, and in a tight game like this it could be needed.

Super Soccer tip - Parramatta

Bankstown's Coach Sakib Lovic RESIGNS

Sakib Lovic of Bankstown City has become the first casualty of the 1999 Super League, resigning from his coaching position to spend more time with his family.

Lovic's short reign as coach was certainly eventful, with the Lions hitting Bonnyrigg for 5 in the first game then conceding 5 in their very next match.

Veteran player Mile Todoroski has taken over on a temporary basis as player coach.

Super Soccer would like to wish Sakib all the very best and thanks him for his co-operation with Super Soccer magazine.

In other Bankstown news U21 player George Issa has ensured the loss of Zoki Adioski in the past few weeks hasn't been missed. Issa has scored four in the last two games, and when Adioski becomes available after a short period with other commitments, it will give the Lions a potent strike-force.

FOOTBALL WORLD EYES ON FUTURE CHAMPIONS

by Bonnie Mersiades

No other sport offers the structure of international competition that real football does for both talented young male and female players.

As well as the World Cup which is the world's single biggest sporting event held every four years, there is the Olympic competition (Under 23s), the World Youth Championship (Under 20) and the World Under 17 Championship for men plus the Women's World Cup and the Olympics for women. While many Australian eyes are focussed on the Sydney 2000 Olympics, Australia is involved in two major football championships ahead of the Olympics - the World Youth Cup in Nigeria in April, the Women's World Cup in the USA in June/July - and hopes to be participating in the Under 17 World Youth Championships in New Zealand in November (the final qualifying tournament will be held in Fiji in May).

The World Youth Championship began very modestly in Tunisia in 1977, but from the early 1990s has become an event of significant importance to the football world, attracting worldwide television coverage and enormous interest from overseas clubs and talent scouts. It has long been the launching-pad of many young football stars, both from Australia and elsewhere, and no doubt many of our own Young Socceroos are hoping to make the most of their opportunity in the world football spotlight. In the meantime, clubs at home hold their breath in anticipation of offers!

Australia has hosted the event twice - in 1981 and 1993 . Our best performance was in Portugal in 1991 and in 1993 in Australia, both times placing fourth.

Not surprisingly, Brazil tops the honours lists with three wins while Argentina and Portugal have had two wins each. Argentina is the defending champion for the 1999 tournament which kicks off in Nigeria on 3 April between the home side and Costa Rica.

Australia's first-round group also includes Saudi Arabia, the Republic of Ireland and Mexico and our first game is against Saudi Arabia on 4 April (Nigerian time).

NSW is well-represented in Nigeria. Players such as Brett Emerton, Eddy Bosnar, Paul Wearne, Jason Culina, Lindsay Wilson, Mile Sterjovski, Christian Care, Joel Griffiths and NSW Institute of Sport player, Mark Byrnes, are amongst the locals in the 20-man Young Socceroos squad. All have learned, and honed, their skills in local NSW competition.

Television coverage within Australia of this significant worldwide sporting event is not known at the time of writing, but Super Soccer will keep you up-to-date with progress over the next few weeks. We'll also be taking a look at a few of our future NSW and Australian champions. The tournament runs from 3-24 April.

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ILLAWARRA LIONS HUMBLED BY MINOTAURS AND BATHURST COME A CROPPER AT CROMER

The form of Tony Pezzano's Manly Warringah Dolphins is really making followers of this Division sit up and take notice. Not surprisingly, then, Pezzano, who is to coach the representative team from the division on a two match tour of New Caledonia later this month has shortlisted five of his own players for the team.

Dave Harding, who returned to the club this year, the speedy Damian Rosenthal, highly promising young defender Kelvin Foster, big defender Danny Barbalace and Queensland newcomer Matthew Bastian have all been given a chance to shine, just as they have shone for the Dolphins so far this term.

Last Sunday was no exception. Manly took the game to Bathurst and in the first half the home side's keeper, Rocky Papalia was idle, so dominant were the Dolphins.

Raids by the lightning fast Damien Rosenthal and Dave Harding failed to produce a first half breakthrough, however, as the Bathurst backline defended doggedly.

Pezzano has had his side in training since November and it is no secret that they are by far the fittest side in the league.

The second half saw the inevitable goal arrive. Rosenthal made a trademark surge down the right and cut the ball inside to the equally fast David Harding who executed a tidy finish at the 72 minute mark. Matthew Baillie had pulled off one or two good saves, with other shots striking him instead of the target, but he could do little to stop the stoppage time penalty put away by Harding. Harding had set sail for goal only to be confronted by a defender who slipped as he made a lunging tackle and handled the ball as it fell in his path.

Manly had a strong presence at the back, with former Fourex League of Queensland defender Matt Bastion showing superb potential able assisted by Greg Walley and the rest of the backs.

It was the Dolphins' third win on the trot and their most pleasing as Bathurst had arrived unbeaten.

A C United stumbled against old foes Moorebank at Abruzzi Oval, struggling to catch up after conceding a goal after just 14 minutes.

Moorebank, winless thus far and friendless in the betting, if there was such a thing in this division, dominated the first half. Mike Necevski weaved his way into the box in the 14th and struck the first blow to leave A C United keeper Andres Ferriero sprawling.

The visitors again looked well on top early in the second half and the A C cause was not aided when midfield schemer Leo Pintos was carried off after only 52 minutes of the game, with a knee injury.

Fortunately A C managed to draw level moments after the loss of their player and it came after a fine cross by Gerry Sansone which was nodded home confidently by Steve Aravena.

The game became more even after this equaliser and AC rued their luck when in the 65th minute Robbie Cecik beat two defenders and then cracked a left footer narrowly wide.

Moorebank's scorer Necevski almost grabbed a winner for his side with a 72nd minute 40 yard shot that skimmed the crossbar, but after a typical derby-like game, honours were shared and both sides had something to show for their efforts.

The flag stayed down in the 81st as Briscoe advanced on goal but could only find the side netting with his right foot, but had better luck in stoppage time as he ran through to face Haydar Arslan and completed the job in good style for the 5-0 win.

Illawarra Lions were stunned by their bogey side Hurstville City Minotaurs, who won the corresponding fixture in each of the previous two seasons, and raced to a 3-0 lead within 38 minutes!

The Lions had looked good in their first couple of outings and were hoping for a big season this year, but this game certainly brought them down to earth with a jolt.

Tom Pontidas put the visiting Minotaurs a goal up inside 21 minutes and when Michael Kladis added a second after 35 minutes it did not look good for the Lions, now back at their second home, Ian McLellan Park.

Nick Knithakis made it 3-0 three minutes later and by then the damage was done.

Big Jim Mellisourgos, who played with the Minotaurs late last season, netted the only goal for the home side in the 63rd, but the game was a triumph for the Hurstville side and their mentor Peter Sarikakis who seems to have a knack of getting his side primed for the big occasion.

Penrith Panthers are one of only five unbeaten teams after the third round, this time making short work of Dulwich Hill with two goals in the first half helping them on their way to a 3-0 win.

Bob Casserly got them off to a good start in the 29th and then the steely Richard Astone was able to add a second six minutes later.

Penrith wrapped the win up in the 84th with a Danny Hinton strike to make it six goals for and none against in their opening matches, a record which should make some other sit up and take notice.

Stanmore Hawks had not found the net in two previous outings, but had met two of the best teams, if not, then certainly two of the best defences, in the division, in those opening encounters.

This time at Arlington Oval they were up against an as yet uncoordinated Auburn side who soon found themselves a goal down to the Hawks, who had successfully sprung the offside trap. This had allowed one of Stanmore's new strikers, Soc Bakafoukas, to go on and beat the keeper with ease in only the 8th minute.

Auburn then lost Kamal Codmani to a red card in the 20th minute which gave them precious little chance of getting back in the game.

Peter Kypreos made it 2-0 for the home side with a looping shot from out wide on the right in the 34th and it was only three minutes later when Nick Bolianitis was on hand to rifle his shot into the roof of the net following a well directed free kick from wide on the left by player-coach Eddie Briscoe.

Auburn put up a brave showing and on one or two occasions the Stanmore defence resorted to some desperate clearances. It was only the woodwork that stood between defender Gavin Backhouse and an Auburn goal in the 63rd and the same player had seen another powerful shot strike an opposition player's legs before going harmlessly wide.

The Hawks' latest signing Malcolm Adams came on off the bench around the hour mark and made an instant impression.

Adams got the better of his man down the left and sent over a cross which deflected off a defender in the path of Bakafoukas arriving at the far post and the big striker just had enough on his shot to see it spin inside the post for goal number four.

The flag stayed down in the 81st as Briscoe advanced on goal but could only find the side netting with his right foot, but had better luck in stoppage time as he ran through to face Haydar Arslan and completed the job in good style for the 5-0 win.

St George faced neighbours Rockdale Suns at St George Stadium on Sunday evening and were gleeful when, after just 50 seconds, they had opened the scoring.

If they thought that the flood gates were about to then open they were to be disappointed as Rockdale stuck to their task and did all within their power to give player-coach Gerry Gomez the support he needed in aiming for the team's first point of the season.

Gomez started the game only hours after learning that his father Casey had passed away and there was a minute's silence before the game in tribute to the man.

The Saints began from the kick off with Paul Carter sending Gordon Sutherland on his way only for the player to be upended on his path to goal.

The well-taken free kick from Stefan Janic was nodded in cleverly at the near post by Anthony Adamo, but it was to prove the only goal of the game.

Simon Verrender ran through the heart of the Rockdale defence in the 34th and cut inside before angling his shot wide of the post.

Gomez was prominent for Rockdale as they came forward in droves as the game wore on. Saints had enjoyed a most impressive opening passage and played some thrilling football, without adding to their score, but the visitors piled on the pressure thereafter.

Gomez headed straight into the keeper's waiting arms in the 70th and just over the bar on another occasion, as did John Manalopoulos nine minutes later.

St George should have scored again in the 82nd when Louis Dounis picked out Janic running down the right, but when Janic cut inside and looked set to cross with two men free he fired into the side netting instead.

Rockdale's most impressive performer, Peter Apolevski, cut a swathe down the right flank but could do no more than earn a free kick or two, none of the Rockdale players managing to find room inside the six yard area to get a strike on goal, which they needed badly.

On this showing many better teams will find it hard to get through the Saints' defence, while with time the Rockdale side will surely soon register their first win.

ROUND FOUR AND FIVE PREVIEW

The two big rounds over the Easter weekend provide tempting fare for the Division's supporters, with games spread over all four days.

Unbeaten Manly-Warringah Dolphins face a tricky trip to tame the Minotaurs at Hurstville Oval on Good Friday, with all eyes on the spectacularly successful side from the northern beaches.

Minotaurs have been going along quite nicely, thank you, despite shedding some quality players over the summer break, due to financial factors, so at home could be a tough opponent. The Manly defence seems to be their main strength, conceding only two in their first three games, so they might manage a narrow win here.

Bathurst, smarting from that first defeat at Manly last weekend may bounce back against A C United who are unbeaten, but lack conviction, as evidenced by their sorry showing at home to intense rivals Moorebank when they had to settle for a point. Bathurst should be good enough to win this.

Moorebank, fresh from their precious point at Abruzzi Oval last Sunday could make life tough for a somewhat shot-shy St George at Hammondville Oval. Saints are hard to break down, so it could end in a stalemate if Moorebank continue to improve.

Auburn are still settling in and the might of the Penrith team should have them quaking in their boots at Mona Park. This home side can be unpredictable, and upsets do occur on this ground where they are appearing for the first time this season. A Panthers win is hard to go past, however.

Moorebank, fresh from their precious point at Abruzzi Oval last Sunday could make life tough for a somewhat shot-shy St George at Hammondville Oval. Saints are hard to break down, so it could end in a stalemate if Moorebank continue to improve.

Saturday sees two matches at nearby grounds. Arlington at 3 pm has Dulwich Hill taking on Illawarra Lions who are sure to have been given a dressing down after the 3-0 home humbling at the hands of the Minotaurs. If they are on fire Dulwich had better watch out! At Rockdale at 5 pm the Gerry Gomez-led team tackles Stanmore Hawks who are unbeaten and beginning to look a threat again after a slow start.

Rockdale showed signs of improvement on Sunday in holding St George to a lone strike and may do enough, having won a trial against this side, to break their duck.

There are two Sunday matches AC United matching strides with Hurstville City who may pick up a point and St George entertaining Bathurst in a game which the visitors could also take home a share of the spoils from.

Easter Monday has Stanmore back at Arlington where they should beat Moorebank, Auburn at Mona Park where Rockdale will be favoured to win by a good score, Penrith against Illawarra at the Nepean Rugby Oval with the Panthers expected to win and Manly-Warringah hosting Dulwich Hill at Cromer Park for what should be another in their fine run of home wins on the peninsula.

Division two Review

ROUND TWO REVIEW

The second round began at Bathurst Street Park in sweltering heat and the game between Greystanes and Sydney District was played with some passion.

District's coach Michael Renos rang the changes following his team's first round 5-0 loss to Fraser Park, when the side arrrived to take on Greystanes on Saturday.

In a game that saw three players sent off, two from the home side, District could have been a little unlucky not to win, missing a penalty and squandering a number of chances.

As things turned out it was the two half time substitutions and a third soon after Greystanes took the lead in the 55th minute, that saw the visitors lift their game, with Alex Aravena most influential in midfield.

Justin Yule, who was later to be the second 'Stanes man sent off, threaded a nice pass through for Brad Racker whose cracking drive was palmed away by the acrobatic Leo Espinoza in the 6th minute.

District had a chance through Edgar Barzaga in the 22nd but he fired wide after a good pass from James Bourke.

The District side did look certain to open their account in the 42nd but after Barzaga had been upended by Michael Grass in the box, resulting in Grass getting his second yellow of the match, penalty taker Marcelo Garrao saw his shot aimed at the top right corner saved brilliantly by David Apps.

Greystanes got to the front in the 55th, not long after a Gary Comerford shot had been well saved by Espinoza.

Andrew Cauchi got away down the left and his cross was met at the far post by the head of Scott Cumming.

After much pressure by District the ball was eventually fed to substitute Jeff Fonseca who beat Apps with a rising shot into the top left corner in the 71st minute.

Scott Harris was in a scoring position in the 86th for Greystanes, but hesitated too long and a last minute scare for the home side was averted as Apps left his line well to narrow the angle for Garrau who had broken speedily in the last minute and looked set to provide his side with a win.

It was a good turnaround by District for whom Aravena, Bourke and Malcolm Dominguez all shone.

Stanes had two key players sent off and will need to rely even more on their two best players on this occasion, namely Darren Crittenden and David Apps.

Sydney University beat Arncliffe 2-1 at Valentine Park with a goal midway through each half.

Arncliffe finished strongly and Vance Janevski got them in sight of a possible point with a last minute goal, but the last chance went begging after that.

Hills United overcame a poor start against University of NSW at Fred Caterson. Uni had been pushing the ball around well and were rewarded with a goal in the ninth minute, which came from a cross that was headed into the top left hand corner.

Two minutes later Ashley Mathieson ran onto a through ball for Hills and set up Steve Butcher with an excellent cross enabling the latter to equalise.

That first goal of the competition for the home side broke the ice and they began to dominate from that point.

Shortly after, Ashley Mathieson scored with a cracking left foot drive and then Nils Johnsson made it three just before the break.

The second half produced many scoring chances with Mathieson hitting the cross bar,

Con Dellas shooting directly at the keeper twice, but then making amends by setting up Tim Gledhill, who had replaced Butcher, and making it 4-1.

With Hills dominating completely as the game wound down, the final goal came from Richard Moscato with a cannonball-like shot which went in off the post.

Mount Druitt beat Mount Pritchard 2-1 with keeper Jeremy Wynn saving a 5th minute penalty before they opened their account in the 42nd with a 30 yard drive from Ben Nicholas.

Mounties pulled one back on the hour, but Craig Noble struck the winner for the Popondetta Park side in the last ten minutes. Noble, Wynn and libero Angatesh 'Baba' Rao stood out for the Mount Druitt winning side.

Hajduk Wanderers were another to survive an early penalty, Darren Cross saving one against the run of play after Hurstville's Steve Zoric had been sent off in the 20th minute. After that close call on the half hour, in a physical encounter, the sides were still level 0-0 at the break.

Eventually Chris Rasmus slotted home from 10 yards for Hajduk, on the hour and with just 15 to go Trent Worrall made it 2-0 with a tidy near post finish.

Fraser Park beat Belmore 2-1. Sean Strang's powerful header in the 13th minute from a Jon Flack cross getting them off to a good start. Jim Alipheris put Belmore level in the 36th minute with a hit from 12 yards after two Fraser defenders had gone up to clear a cross and failed to meet it. A long ball from Ante Zizic 45 yards out, which found Flack, allowed the youngster to go on and beat the last defender before slotting home the winner in the 38th.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE ROUND FOUR REVIEW

It was a case of 'as you were' for the top three teams in the Super Youth League, as the top three teams in the combined table stayed in the same positions.

Southern Districts remain top, after picking up 10 points from their clash with Eastern Suburbs. While the G13's were held to a 1-1 draw, the other teams picked up victories, G14's 2-1, G15's 3-0 and G16's 5-2. This leaves the G14's sitting proudly on top of their league, and the G13's in second place behind Blacktown City Demons.

It's the Demons who occupy second on the combined table though, after picking up three good wins against Sydney Olympic. A loss in G16's 3-0 to Olympic was the Demons only set-back, as they took the G13's 5-1, G14's 2-0 and G15's 3-1. The G13's have already scored 23 goals in just 4 games, and have only conceded one. The G15's are also top of their table, although they share that position with Marconi Fairfield, who have an identical record to the Demons.

Newcastle Breakers remain third on the combined table, although their clash with the afore-mentioned Marconi Fairfield was not an easy one. In fact, both teams picked up six points each in sharing the spoils, as Newcastle took the G13's 1-0 and the G16's 3-1, but lost the G14's 3-1 and G15's 5-0.

Newcastle's G16's are top of their division, although the G15's are fourth to bottom.

Two teams in the lower reaches of the table clashed in South Nowra, with Southern Branch entertaining Manly Warringah. As befits their closeness on the table this was another match where both teams picked up six points, Southern Branch winning G13's 4-3 and G14's 2-1, but losing 3-1 in G15's and 4-1 in G16's.

Central Coast remains bottom after four rounds, picking up a draw at home to Sutherland. That came courtesy of a 1-1 result in G15's, but Sutherland took some close games 1-0 in G13's, 2-1 in G14's and 4-1 in G16's. After three losses it was the G15's first point of the season, while after conceding 14 in three games the G13's would have been happy just to lose by a solitary goal.

The Tigers of Leichhardt had the better with their clash with Macarthur Rams at Lynwood Park, picking up three wins and a draw. The only joy for the Rams came in a 1-1 draw in the G15's, but other than that it was Leichhardt who were smiling, winning 5-0 in G13's, 3-1 in G14's and 3-0 in G16's. Wollongong are in fifth on the combined table, despite a mixed bag of results against Parramatta Eagles. A 1-1 draw in G13's was followed by a 4-1 victory to the wolves in G14, then another 1-1 result, this time in G15's.

The tables were reversed in G16's though, with the Eagles picking up a 2-0 victory. The Wolves G14's remain undefeated, and are second behind Southern Districts only on goal difference.

In the day's other game, two other mid-table teams battled it out. Sydney United and Gladesville Hornsby had a 1-1 draw in G13's and G15's, but then each had a victory, 3-2 in G14's to Gladesville Hornsby and 3-2 to Sydney United in G16's.

DIVISION ONE COVERAGE - Round 3

AC United moved from fourth to first on the combined table, picking up four wins away at Stanmore Hawks. Victories of 3-1 in G13's, 3-0 in G14's, 2-0 in G15's and 6-2 in G16's saw them leap-frog previous leaders Illawara Lions.

The Lions traveled to Bankstown Association, who themselves were in second place before the match started. As one would expect, some close games emerged, with the Lions taking the G13's 3-2 and the G15's 3-1. A draw in the G14's (2-2) saw Bankstown pick up their first point of the day, which soon became four when they took the G16's 2-1.The Lions still head two age groups though, the G13's and G15's.

Ryde City also made a move up the table, defeating Canterbury Marrickville in all four grades. A 4-1 win in G13's was followed by an 8-0 victory in G14's, 5-0 in G15's and 5-1 in G16's. After three rounds it unfortunately means Canterbury Marrickville are yet to pick up a point, but Ryde sit on top of the G14's table, having only conceded one goal in three games.

St George dropped from third to fourth, although things looked rosy for the Saints away at Hills United after picking up victories in G13's 2-0 and G14's 2-0. Hills came back though, winning 3-0 in G15's and drawing G16's 1-1.

Rockdale City Suns moved up a place from second to bottom to third to bottom, after picking up four points from their clash with Bonnyrigg White Eagles. Bonnyrigg took the G14's 1-0 and the G15's 2-0, but Rockdale had already secured three points with a 1-0 victory in G13's, and the G16's was drawn 2-2.

Canterbury Association also moved up a place to fourth to bottom, after sharing the spoils with Fairfield Bulls at Nineveh Field. Canterbury Association picked up wins in the G13's 8-2, 2-0 in the G14's but Fairfield, yet another team to move up one place, took the G15's 3-2 and the G16's 1-0.

There was only a couple of goals in it at Penrith, where the Panthers entertained Blacktown Association. 1-1 draws in G14's and G15's summed up the clashes, but the Association picked up good wins in G13's (3-1) and G16's (1-0)

DIVISION TWO YOUTH LEAGUE - Round Two

Neapean Association took their record to 7 victories in 8 games on Saturday, defeating Granville Association in three of the four clashes. Only a 2-1 loss in G14's could upset the Nepean boys, who took the other games 3-0 in G13's, 4-1 in G15's and 3-1 in G16's.

Mt Druitt Town are second after picking up 10 points out of 12 away at Moorebank Sports. 7-1 victories in G13's and G16's helped Town's cause, and a 4-0 win in G14's gave the G14's their first win of the season. A 0-0 draw in G15's at least gave Moorebank some cheer from the day.

Mt Pritchard were too strong at home to CSI Schofields, Mt Pritchard winning 3-0 in G13's and 5-1 in both G15's and G16's. A 1-1 draw in G14's sees CSI Schofields into second place for that age group.

Hajduk Wanderers were another team to pick up 10 points, playing away at Hawkesbury City. A 3-3 draw in G13's was as good as it got for the home side, Hajduk winning the other grades 3-1 in G14's, 3-0 in G15's and 2-0 in G16's.

Macquarie Sports picked up three good wins at Parramatta City, with the home side just claiming maximum points in G15's (2-0). Macquarie however took the honours with 4-0 in G13's, 2-1 in the G14's and 5-3 in the G16's.

In the day's other game it was tight between Camden Tigers and Ku-Ring-Gai Association, the Tigers claiming G15's 1-0 and G16's 3-1. A 1-1 draw in G13's was followed by a 2-1 victory to Ku-Ring-Gai in the G14's.

Cadet League Division One Round One Summary

Bonnyrigg White Eagles defeated Parramatta City 4-3 at Eric Primrose Park on the weekend in G11 action, although the highest goal-scoring performance of the day went to Canterbury-Marrickville G11's, who put 5 without reply past Eastern Suburbs. Eastern Suburbs were to have the last laugh though in the G12's, reversing the 5-0 scoreline. Parramatta Eagles also scored 5, this time in G12 action against Macarthur Rams, but the Rams had already taken the G11's 3-1.

St George defeated Marconi Fairfield 2-1 in G11's and 1-0 in G12's, and while Sydney United enjoyed their bye the Leichhardt Tigers beat Ryde City in both grades, 2-0 in G11's and 4-1 in G12's.

Cadet League Division Two Round Three Summary

AC United remain unbeaten in both grades, after convincing wins against Hurstville City 8-1 in G11's and 5-0 in G12's. Penrith Panthers also rackde up the goals in their clash with Mt Druitt Town, winning 7-0 in G11's and 3-1 in G12's. There were a couple of tight games though at Arlington Oval and Bensons Lane. At Arlington home side Stanmore Hawks drew G11's 2-2 with Hajduk Wanderers, and took the G12's 1-0. At Bensons Lane Hawkesbury took the G11's 2-1 against Moorebank Sports, but had to settle for a scoreless draw in G12's.

CSI Schofield's sat out this week, while Hills United picked up maximum points against Mt Pritchard, winning G11's 2-1 and G12's 4-2. Honours were shared in the day's other clash between Illawara Lions and Macquarie Sports, the Lions taking the G11's 5-3 but falling 1-0 in the G12's.
